#BREAKING: Subpoenaed document reveals that the FBI Richmond Field Office coordinated with MULTIPLE field offices across the country

Los Angeles Field Office initiated an investigation on the "RMVE subject." Most concerning of all the newly produced version of the document explicitly states that FBI Richmond "[c]oordinated with" FBI Portland in preparing the assessment. Thus, it appears that both FBI Portland and FBI Los Angeles field offices were involved in or contributed to the creation of FBI's assessment of traditional Catholics as potential domestic terrorists.

This revelation raises the question of why you redacted this information in previous versions of the document you produced to the Committee, and it reinforces the Committee's In section for all FBI material responsive to the April 10 subpoerna, including the production of FBI's Richmond document without redactions. We look forward to receiving a briefing on the FBI's internal review of this matter and to interviewing the Special Agent in Charge of the Richmond Field Office. However, we again reiterate our outstanding requests, including our request to conduct a transcribed interview with the Chief Division Counsel who approved the Richmond document.

We wrote to you on July 18 inviting you to correct the testimony you provided on July 12 related to the FBI's role in the censorship of American speech. This new information raises additional concerns about the accuracy, completeness, and truthfulness of your testimony. We invite you to amend your testimony to fully explain the nature and scope of the FBI's assessment of traditional Catholics as potential domestic terrorists.

Finally, to inform our ongoing oversight of the FBI and to ensure the First Amendment A list of FBI intelligence products that have also cited the reporting done by the FBI's Richmond Field Office and the FBI's Los Angeles Field Office, as well as any other investigations initiated based on the same; and

The Committee on the Judiciary is continuing to conduct oversight of the Federal Bure westigation's (FBB) assessment of traditional Catholics as potential domestic terrorists. Framation recently produced to the Committee, we now know that the FBI relied on mation from around the country—including a liaison contact in the FBI's Portland Field can deporting from the FBI's Los Angeles Field Office—to develop its assessment. This information suggests that the FBI's use of its law enforcement capabilities to intrude on rican's First Amendment rights is more widespread than initially suspected and reveals instinctions with your previous testimony before the Committee. Given this startling new mation, we write to request additional information to advance our oversight.
